TUESDAY AFTERNOON CLUB BREAKS GROUND FOR ITS NEW HOME

$255,762 To Operate Grammar Schools, Trustees Estimate

BUDGET FOR NEXT SEASON GREATER BY $68,379

Total Capital Outlay for Year to Be $324,474, Officials Declare

The cost of operating the Glendale grammar school system during the next school year was estimated at $255,762 last night in the Intermediate school by the board of trustees. This sum is $68,379 more than the expenses for the past school year when $187,393 was expended by the board.

In addition to the expenses of operation, the capital outlay will amount to $324,474. This includes $147,500 to continue the building program already started; $3,000 for the improvement of school grounds; $7,000 for alterations to present buildings, also planned in the building program; $12,500 for new furniture; $500 for new apparatus; $2,000 for new equipment.

Operation of school plants during the last fiscal year cost $20,922.59. The estimate for the next fiscal year is $29,800. This includes $22,000 for the wages of janitors, gardeners and engineers; $1,000 for fuel, water, light and power; $300 for care of grounds; and $1,000 for miscellaneous.

Maintenance of school buildings last year cost $3,588.08. An account of the new structures under construction this amount will be almost doubled for next year. The estimate is $6,700. Twelve hundred dollars has been appropriated for upkeep of grounds and repair of playground apparatus. Four thousand dollars is being set aside for repairs on buildings. One thousand dollars is estimated for repairs on heating, lighting and plumbing and $500 is deemed sufficient for repairs on furniture.

Money for Teachers Teachers' salaries next year will total $186,090 divided between $147,333 for full time teachers and $38,760 for principals and supervisors of special subjects. The total for last year was $142,518.88.

Fixed charges last year amounted to $1,455.56 and for next year will be $2,350. This item includes $1,000 for adjustment of expenses involved in the maintenance of kindergartens; $1,000 for fire insurance; and $350 for industrial insurance on employees of the board.

The school library, which required $2,567 this year, will need $3,722 next year. This includes $1,000 for the expenses of a librarian; $2,172 for books; $500 for the repair of books and $50 for other expenses.

Auxiliary expenses last year were $591.51 and will be $4,200 next year, according to the budget. The possibility of employing a school nurse is provided for in an appropriation of $1400 for her salary. The expense of transporting pupils to and from special classes will be $500; the same amount is being set aside for community lectures and social center work. A similar sum is estimated for recreational work. Four hundred dollars of this amount will be used for playground maintenance work this summer.

Various Expenses General control this year cost $9,250 and will figure close to $12,900 next year. One hundred dollars is calculated for expenses involved in school elections; $300 for city institutes; $500 for expenses of superintendent and principals at official conventions or while on official business; $10,800 is being set aside for the salaries of non-teaching assistants and supplies; $1200 is the estimated expense for the cost of census enumeration and the salary of an attendance officer.

Other expenses of instruction last year totaled $6,212.41, and will be $10,000 next year.

A. G. Lindley Plans Five New Teachers Appointed by Board

Five new teachers for next term were appointed last night by the grammar school board of trustees at its regular meeting. The names of the teachers who will report next term are: Miss Matilda Smith, 4533 South Vermont street, Los Angeles, for the "opportunity room" at the Cerritos school; Leighton R. Stewart, Rivera, and F. McMasters, 326 West Garfield avenue for the intermediate schools; Miss Sarah E. Dunn, 1728 South Western avenue, Los Angeles, for the first grade at the new Grand View school; and Miss Edith Ledyard, 223 West Wilson avenue, for kindergarten assistant at the Columbus school.

Two Picture Stars Are Due to Face Vamp Proof Judge

What will Judge Harold Ide Cruzan fine Bebe Daniels and Wanda Hawley when they appear in his court at Eagle Rock next Saturday morning on speeding charges? Bebe drew a jail sentence at Santa Ana a year ago. She was fined $15 here a week ago. Will the judge be kind and permit her to go with only admonition?

Wanda Hawley also will come before the Eagle Rock magistrate, who is said to be vamp proof. In the first place he is somewhat of an actor himself. Furthermore, Edna Purviance has twice paid fines in his court.

From all indications there should be a society for the protection of poor movie actresses who are pinched for speeding. Otherwise their salaries will not be sufficient to permit their visit to the suburbs of Hollywood.

BUSINESS WOMEN AT PICNIC PARTY

Seventy-five Members and Friends on Outing In Verdugo Woodlands

The second delightful picnic of the Glendale Business and Professional Women's club was held last evening at the F. P. Newport company's picnic grounds in Verdugo Woodlands, and was attended by seventy-five members of the organization, their husbands, sweethearts, brothers and friends. After a most elaborate picnic supper the guests adjourned to the pavilion. In the absence of the president, Dr. Laura Brown, Miss Sara Pollard took charge of the meeting. Miss Gertrude Gibbs, of the program committee, introduced Mrs. Clara Tunison, who is a newcomer to Glendale, and gave an interesting comparison between the American and English women, based on her own experience.

"The American women have made such rapid strides professionally and educationally because they have not had to live down the old customs and traditions with which the countries of Europe are associated," Mrs. Tunison stated. "What the American women have done in years it has taken the English women and those of other countries of Europe centuries to do. The American women is the equal and in a large number of cases the superior in her home life and everything connected with womanhood. There is not one thing that a woman can attempt in the United States that she can't do here, because she has that 'go-aheadness' about her. The broad-minded people of other nations have to acknowledge that America heads the list of the women of the world."

Miss Grace Yarbrough gave two interesting readings, "At the Movies" and "The April Fool," and responded to an encore with "The Modern Girl." After a rising vote of thanks to Mrs. Tunison and Miss Yarbrough the meeting adjourned.

Christian Circle to Take a Vacation

Fifty-eight girls attended the Christian Circle club meeting at the Baptist church last night, the supper being served by the Congregational women. At the business meeting presided over by Miss Nell Leggett, it was decided to hold no more meetings until the middle of September. The Bible lesson was taught by Miss Maud Soper.

Arthur G. Lindley, a Los Angeles architect who resides here, presently is preparing preliminary plans for the First Methodist congregation at Paso Robles, the new church building to include an auditorium seating 250, social hall, dining room, kitchen, shower baths and other modern equipment. The estimated cost is $40,000.

H. L. MILLERS AT HOME

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Miller, who were married at Bakersfield recently, have returned to Glendale from a honeymoon trip in Yosemite national park and other points of interest in central California. They are making their home at 1223 North Central avenue ready for occupancy. Mr. Miller is widely known as a real estate and insurance man, being the head of the H. L. Miller company at 109 South Brand boulevard.

ONE-PIECE BATHING SUITS WAITING TO BE FILLED

And Fillers Are Ready for Thrillers; But Swimming 'Hole' Is Unfinished

Forty dozen one-piece bathing suits have been received for the Glendale municipal plunge. They are the latest model, free and easy, but entirely decent, it is said. The plunge still is in the hands of the contractors, although R. W. Biddecom, newly appointed swimming supervisor, is ready for the opening. It had been hoped that the opening would be held on the Fourth of July, usually the warmest day of the year in Glendale, but, from appearances of the work and the small handful of workmen employed, it will be July 15 or later before the formal opening will take place.

Already twenty-five to fifty kiddies are showing up at the Patterson avenue park daily with their swimming suits, only to be turned away. Mothers are bringing the little tots to the wading pool which has a disheveled water in it.

The interest shown in the plunge already has shown the necessity for more parks in Glendale and the city council has ordered an ordinance prepared authorizing the appointment of a park commission, to consist of five members, who will serve without remuneration.

Mr. Biddecom this morning stated that he plans to have the pool open from 10 a. m. to 9 p. m. with no schedule limiting the enjoyment of the bathers. There will be no special days for women and children as long as conditions do not demand the restrictions. To Pasadena and Alhambra authorities have found it unnecessary to have any rules other than those of good behavior.

Experience in managing the Ocean Park plunge about ten years ago well qualifies Mr. Biddecom, according to Councilman A. H. Lapham, who fathered the swimming pool project. The supervisor has two children of his own who are going to learn to swim this summer, he says.

But they, with the rest of Glendale, will have to wait until the contractors complete the job.

One Bridge Results In Others, Claim

One new bridge across the Los Angeles river connecting Glendale and Griffith park will be an inspiration for others, according to City Manager W. H. Reeves. He believes that citizens should concentrate upon one particular site even if it may not be the very best one, because it is his opinion that, as soon as one bridge has been installed, it will be easier to secure additional bridges.

"At present, the people don't know how much good a bridge would do them," he remarked this morning. "The hard thing is to get the first bridge. Everybody should boost for the first bridge." The experience of Pasadena has been cited repeatedly in this connection by Mr. Reeves. The first bridge across the Arroyo Seco was a "one-half horse" bridge in the hollow at Colorado street. The first full sized bridge was the Linda Vista. This was followed by the Colorado street bridge, the California street bridge and finally the Devil's Gate bridge. Now the Columbus street bridge is under construction. Mr. Reeves calls attention to the fact that none of these were especially hard to secure after the first one had been opened.

An advantage of Broadway as a bridge terminus is the fact that it would bring motorists through the business section of Glendale, according to Mr. Reeves. He states, however, that the river channel is considerably narrower at Park avenue and that the expense of installing a bridge should be much less.

MANY KILLED AND WOUNDED IN IRISH OUTBREAKS
Information forwarded to The Glendale Evening News over its International News Service leased wire is to the effect that the long threatened warfare between the Irish republicans and the supporters of the Irish free state broke out at Dublin today. Advices filed in London and Dublin this afternoon indicated that the Irish provisional government had successfully weathered the storm and that the irregular republicans had been vanquished. Reinforcements of regulars were rushed to Dublin and at the same time precautions were taken to prevent irregulars from making their way into the city. From the number of men engaged and the violence of the action, the fighting had all appearances of civil war. Many were killed and wounded, but official casualty lists are not yet available. The battle opened at dawn when free state troops attacked the Four Courts building, headquarters of the republicans, and Fowler Hall, which was being used for a barracks. Fowler Hall was quickly captured. The Four Courts building was wrecked. Roderick O'Connor, commander of the republican irregulars, was reported to have been wounded. This was the gravest test of strength that the Irish provisional government has been called upon to face. While the British deny that any pressure was exerted it is understood that the military move was hastened by Colonial Secretary Churchill's recent declaration in the house of commons that the headquarters of the irregular faction is a "nest of murder and outrage, and must be cleaned out."

Scratch! Scratch! Wild Oats Active; Your Ankles Know

Southern California is reaping a crop of wild oats this summer. Yea, verily! Step out into the vacant property in the vicinity of Glendale and the harvest begins at the cuffs of the trousers and slowly works through the sox. Years ago barley, oats and other grains were big crops in the San Fernando valley. Now with the acreage practically all subdivided around here, it takes a late rain and warm summer combined to bring back memories of the harvest, haystack and other pleasurable work of the farm.

Millions of Fish And Not One Bite! Why? That's Story

According to both sacred and profane history Mr. Jonah launched the first fish story and ever since, man of all ages has been trying to go Jonah's whale of a story one better.

For several centuries every new fish story has been about the length of the fish, told most effectively with gestures, but Mrs. Louise Purnell, well known Glendale resident, who spent the past week-end camping and fishing at Big Rock beyond Lake Canyon tells this on the modern fish. "Yes, there are millions of silver trout in the stream at Big Rock, but the owners of the nearby hatchery are so fond of their pets that they train them not to bite. The patient fishermen sit on the rocks for hours, baiting their hooks and casting them into the cool waters, but all they catch are many trout smiles at the little and big fishes dart up and down stream. During our stay there was but one fatality and that was a happy little trout that accidentally got caught on an angler's hook. No, he didn't bite, he was too well trained for that, but, according to the hatchery owners, he unfortunately opened his mouth to yawn just as the fisherman cast his line."

Members of the F. L. Hollingsworth family and Rev. and Mrs. Winnard were the wedding guests from Glendale.

By CORINNE ORFF
Commencement exercises of the Tuesday Afternoon Club were held yesterday afternoon at Lexington drive and Central avenue, for the breaking of ground ceremonies observed at that time was the result of years of planning and financing, and although it is a crowning achievement in the affairs of that organization, yet it marks just the beginning of an endeavor which, when completed, will have crystallized much of the community spirit of Glendale and will stand for the highest ideals of womanhood in this community.

Preceding the ground-breaking exercises the annual luncheon of the Tuesday Afternoon Club was held at Lexington drive and Central avenue, for the breaking of ground ceremonies observed at that time was the result of years of planning and financing, and although it is a crowning achievement in the affairs of that organization, yet it marks just the beginning of an endeavor which, when completed, will have crystallized much of the community spirit of Glendale and will stand for the highest ideals of womanhood in this community.

IRISH FORCES HAVE VIOLENT BATTLE; MANY DEAD

Fowler Hall Taken Away From Irregular Faction of Republican Army

DUBLIN, June 28. — Fowler hall, which was being used by the irregular faction of the Irish republican army, was captured by the Irish free state troops today after a violent battle broke out at dawn.

At this hour, the four courts building, headquarters of Roderick (Rory) O'Connor, commandant of the Irish regulars, was still in the possession of the anti-free state forces but was under heavy fire.

Fowler hall was taken by a single armored car, which broke through the ranks of the irregulars.

Rain fell throughout the battle and the smoke from bursting bombs and artillery shells hung over the battlefield.

The fighting had all the aspects of civil war between the free staters and republicans, but the panic which accompanied the early phase of the engagement died down and at this hour the people outside of the battle zone were beginning to attend their daily business. Free staters were posted in the streets to search civilians for arms and thus prevent an ambush by republican sympathizers.

Priests Show Bravery

A number of men were captured by the free staters when Fowler hall fell.

Priests and nurses acted with great bravery giving assistance to the wounded. Father O'Reilly was shot while giving help to a wounded man.

The priests knelt in the street giving consolation to the dying while bullets whizzed past them.

Free state troops established a danger zone for the residents of streets adjacent to the battle and all non-combatants were warned to withdraw.

One woman dropped dead from the shock of excitement.

The Irish provisional government is declared to have delivered an ultimatum to Commandant O'Connor of the rebels just before midnight giving him one hour to withdraw his troops from their headquarters and barracks.

Later, the free staters, to show they were in earnest, drew up field guns in the streets about Fowler hall and the four courts building. The armored cars used by the free staters were armed with heavy Hotchkiss guns.

Three wounded men died in hospitals. Doctors said they saw a number of dead men lying in the battle area.

Four Courts Building In Dublin Blown Up, Is Report

LONDON, June 28. — The four courts building in Dublin, which was attacked by Irish Free State troops at dawn, has been blown up, according to a dispatch received from Dublin at 11:30 o'clock.

There are 5000 British troops in Dublin which have been placed at the disposal of Michael Collins, chief of the Irish provisional government, if he needs them.

A Central News dispatch from Mullingar this afternoon said that Free State troops were being moved into Dublin. It was reported that some of the troops had been arrested for mutiny.

An Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Dublin at 1:30 this afternoon said that Roderick O'Connor, commandant of the irregular republicans, had been wounded. The dispatch added that two irregulars were known to have been killed and fourteen wounded.

Trench mortars were used against four courts building in the morning, said a Dublin dispatch to the Star at 11:40 o'clock.

This dispatch reported that the home office building had been blown in but that barbed wire entanglements impeded the movements of the attackers.

Many sensational and unconfirmed reports have been received. Details of the fighting have been held up by the censorship established by the Dublin government.

At No. 10 Downing street, the official residence of Premier Lloyd George, it was stated the premier declared that Great Britain was not responsible for the attack against the four courts building.

It is understood the premier wrote to Collins last week, asking him to clear up the Irish at home and offering aid.

Collins answered that he had already planned action and needed no outside help.

Capt. W. B. Kelly Inspires This Poem

Not every citizen has the honor of being the subject of a "poem."

Capt. W. B. Kelly of 106 West Colorado street, dealer in real estate, insurance, etcetera—mostly et cetera—and president of the Glendale Progressive club, was singled out for this honor Monday night at the first annual spring post's dinner.

The writer was none other than George H. Thomas, assistant manager of the Brand boulevard branch of the Los Angeles Trust & Savings Bank.

Inspiration came, he says, from trying to force sixes to look like nines. His masterpiece won second prize in the overflow of "poetry" and might have won first place—if Capt. D. Ripley Jackson had stayed home.

One of the remarkable features about his poem is that one line follows right after another with every fifth line blank. The second and fourth lines rhyme. There are seven verses—each better or worse than the last, as the case may be.

Well, here it is; you can judge it for yourself:

KELLY
There once was a fellow named Kelly,
President of a most famous club,
He made me write poetry, some silly,
My effort will prove me a dub.

Now, Kelly at all things was handy,
In fact, he was a resourceful kid,
Who a member tried to do a thing dandy,
He did it like Kelly did.

Brother Kelly once did umpire a ball game,
And each team for his favor bid,
But he promised decisions impartial,
And he gave them, like Kelly did.

"Doc" Belyea stayed home from a picnic,
Had a patient he said was "bed-ridden,"
It cost him two bucks for the ride,
But he enjoyed it, like Kelly did.

"Buz" Sutton, a goat initiated
In a manner most intrepid,
He bleated out, highly elated
And had company—like Kelly did.

A fellow named Waring went bathing
In soup late from the stove- lid,
And from his antics we knew what he liked,
Besides, he said so—like Kelly did.

G. Thomas essayed a nice poem,
To first prize he knew he'd succeed,
But as a poet there was "nobody home,"
And he won it—as friend Kelly did.

Bob Shuler Brings Kiwanians Message

The big feature of the Kiwanis club luncheon Friday noon will be a talk by "Fighting Bob" Shuler.

Bob Shuler is well known throughout southern California and his message is one of tremendous interest to every business man and Kiwanian. It is declared.

The entire dining room of the Broadway Inn has been taken over for Friday noon by the Kiwanis club and every member of the Glendale club is entitled to bring one guest.

There are no doubt many in Glendale who would like to hear Bob Shuler, but owing to the lack of space service it will be necessary to limit the attendance to one male guest for each member. Application should be made as soon as possible. Further information can be obtained from Lyman P. Clark, president, Glendale 2430; 124 West Colorado.

Tuesday Club to Continue Activity Through Summer

Although the official year's work has closed, the members of the Tuesday Afternoon club will continue their activities throughout the summer for the purpose of securing funds for the new clubhouse, which it is anticipated will be completed and ready for occupancy about the first of the year. At the dedicatory exercises of the club at Lexington and Central avenue yesterday afternoon, Mrs. A. H. Montgomery, newly installed first vice-president of the club, announced a series of sixteen programs of entertainment to be given during the summer.

The first of the chain of parties will be given at the home of Mrs. Montgomery Thursday, June 29. The series of entertainments are to include beach parties, swimming parties and all kinds of social affairs. Mrs. Daniel Campbell is to entertain July 11 with a beefsteak party. Mrs. Montgomery also announced that about July 15 the Pendroy Department store is to put on a sale, a certain percentage of the sales to be turned over to the ways and means committee of the club.

The annual bazaar of the club is to be in the form of an indoor society circus, with a fashion show, crystal gazers, Gypsy fortune tellers and many other features, she stated.

progressiveness in deciding upon building a clubhouse, thereby taking a more definite place in community affairs."

V. M. Hollister, president of the Chamber of Commerce, responded to a toast, "What the New Clubhouse Means to Glendale," in which he commended the wonderful spirit the women of the organization are showing in undertaking such a large proposition which, he stated:

"Teaches not only the residents but the outsiders that the women of Glendale have as much to do with the building of this fast-growing city as the men. All of Glendale will be benefited by this new building."

"Club Women in the Home" was the toast responded to by Roy L. Kent, president of Rotary club. He stated:

"The members of the club, through the clubhouse endeavor, are dedicated to a program of civic helpfulness. No club has an excuse for existence that does not in some way render service, and this club makes for higher education and social standards, and to do this lies in carrying that message to the home. If club members cannot be a help and inspiration in the home, the latent for service in the community will be a failure."

Rev. C. M. Calderwood responded to a toast, "Women in the World of Affairs," relating the part they have taken and are taking and urged that they make some contribution in whatever line of endeavor they enter.

Mrs. J. C. Urquhart, district president, greeted the members and congratulated them on the new era which the club is entering. F. V. Shuck of Loomis-Shuck Music company, and William Howe of Glendale theatre gave brief talks expressing co-operation in any way possible that they may be of assistance.

Bring Greetings
Mrs. Mattison B. Jones, past president of the organization, urged the members to pledge "loyal support to the old and the new and say to the entire community when the clubhouse is finished that here stands the loyal work of the club women of Glendale."

Mrs. Winters, representing Mrs. M. T. Lee of the Eagle Rock Women's club, extended greetings from that organization.

Mrs. E. B. Moore of the Parent-Teacher federation, gave a few words of greeting, as did also Mrs. R. E. Chase, district chairman of drama.

Another evidence of the growth of the club was the reading of sixteen applications for membership by the secretary, Mrs. Dunn. In thanking the daughters of club members who assisted in serving Mrs. Hutchinson expressed the vision of herself and other presidents of the club for a junior club for the young people. In presenting Mrs. Daniel Campbell, who has served as chairman of the special finance committee, Mrs. Hutchinson introduced her as the "money maniac," on account of her success in securing the necessary loans to make possible the erection of the club edifice. Her associates on the committee were Mrs. H. E. Bartlett, Mrs. A. P. Findlay and Mrs. A. M. Hunt. They have secured a loan of $9,000 from L. C. Brand, and to assure him that the clubhouse will be completed announced that an additional loan of $10,000 would be secured. Mrs. Campbell stated:

"The committee secured the names of ten people who would sign notes of $1,000 each as collateral for loan of $10,000 to be made from a Glendale bank in one day. These people are Daniel Campbell, A. S. Chase, Mrs. Minnie C. Patterson, C. H. Post, Clinton Booth, Dr. Henry Harrower, Mrs. Ella Richardson, T. D. Watson, C. C. Cooper and H. E. Bartlett. It is now possible to take out a life membership in the Tuesday Afternoon club and if 100 life memberships at $100 each are secured it will not be necessary to call on the ten guarantors."

Already twelve have signed for life membership, including Mrs. Daniel Campbell, Mrs. Minnie C. Patterson, Mrs. S. C. Packer, Mrs. C. H. Bott, Mrs. C. C. Cooper, Mrs. Lydia M. Border, Mrs. Henry Harrower, Mrs. Ella Richardson, Mrs. T. D. Watson, Mrs. Roy L. Kent, Mrs. H. E. Bartlett and Mrs. L. C. Brand.

Dedicatory Services
After reading a telegram of greetings from Mrs. Claire Woods of the Burbank Women's club, which also held their annual luncheon yesterday, by Mrs. Hutchinson, the members adjourned to the club lots at Lexington Drive and Central avenue, where the dedicatory services opened with the singing of "America," led by Mayor Robinson, with Mrs. L. N. Hagood at the piano. In dedicating the ground Mrs. Hutchinson stated:

"In behalf of the 650 loyal members of the Tuesday Afternoon club, the faithful members of the board and the highest ideals of my fellow women, I now dedicate this ground, and in turning the first shovel of dirt pledge our allegiance to the highest ideals of womanhood in this community."

Among the past presidents of the club who were present and took part in the exercises were Mrs. A. W. Tower, during whose first term as president the first club lot was purchased and at the close of whose second term the three lots at Lexington and Brand were bought; Mrs. Mattison B. N. LeRoy Lyons, the most widely known resident of Roscoe, is dead. He passed away in a Los Angeles hospital last week following several years' illness which caused him to retire from the ministry. He was a big booster for the community which he adopted in his passing days and many a line he has written has appeared in valley newspapers.

Four Courts Building In Dublin Blown Up, Is Report

LONDON, June 28. — The four courts building in Dublin, which was attacked by Irish Free State troops at dawn, has been blown up, according to a dispatch received from Dublin at 11:30 o'clock.

There are 5000 British troops in Dublin which have been placed at the disposal of Michael Collins, chief of the Irish provisional government, if he needs them.

A Central News dispatch from Mullingar this afternoon said that Free State troops were being moved into Dublin. It was reported that some of the troops had been arrested for mutiny.

An Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Dublin at 1:30 this afternoon said that Roderick O'Connor, commandant of the irregular republicans, had been wounded. The dispatch added that two irregulars were known to have been killed and fourteen wounded.

Trench mortars were used against four courts building in the morning, said a Dublin dispatch to the Star at 11:40 o'clock.

This dispatch reported that the home office building had been blown in but that barbed wire entanglements impeded the movements of the attackers.

Many sensational and unconfirmed reports have been received. Details of the fighting have been held up by the censorship established by the Dublin government.

At No. 10 Downing street, the official residence of Premier Lloyd George, it was stated the premier declared that Great Britain was not responsible for the attack against the four courts building.

It is understood the premier wrote to Collins last week, asking him to clear up the Irish at home and offering aid.

Collins answered that he had already planned action and needed no outside help.

They made the trip in their Peerless eight, accompanied by George Rissman and Miss Maude Coy, both of Los Angeles. Mr. Gulick reports that the cattle are looking fine and will be ready for market in about forty days. They stopped at Pismo Beach, just the other side of Santa Barbara, en route. They found the long open expanse of this beach, which is noted for its clams, quite delightful.

Dorothy Forbes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Forbes of 419 Lincoln avenue, entertained a group of school friends Saturday evening with an informal dancing party, given at the Forbes home. Bowls of red roses were used in decorating for the affair, which was enjoyed by Herbert and Nellie Jepson, Kenneth Lewis, Evelyn Meeker, Jeanette Yarbrough, Frank Wyeckoff, Donald Murray, Harwood Retburg, Virginia Horner, Dorothy Allen, Marion Bean, and Cecil Ferir of Glendale; John Sparks of Douglas, Arizona, and Lillian Forbes of Los Angeles.

Deaths and Funerals

MRS. KATHERINE HAJEK
After lying completely paralyzed for four days, and gradually growing weaker, Mrs. Katherine Hajek, mother of Mrs. E. T. Seidenglanz of 426 Burchett street, passed away shortly after 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon, June 27, 1922.

Mrs. Hajek at the time of her death was 81 years old. She had been a resident of Glendale almost a year, having come here with her daughter when Mr. and Mrs. Seidenglanz and family moved to Glendale last July.

On May 29 Mrs. Hajek suffered her first stroke of paralysis. She recovered rather rapidly, and was in good health until a second stroke last Friday. Since that time she had been unable to move and yesterday morning lost consciousness.

Born in Bohemia, Mrs. Hajek married Adam Hajek when she was 17 years old. The following year they emigrated to America and settled in Manitowoc, Manitowoc county, Wisconsin. Later they bought a farm in that county and remained there until the death of their son in 1899, when they moved back to Manitowoc.

In 1907 Mr. Hajek died, and Mrs. Hajek made her home with her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Seidenglanz, until the time of her death. Since their arrival in Glendale, Mrs. Hajek had attended the Catholic church here and had many friends.

Since her second stroke Mrs. Hajek expressed a desire to be buried next the remains of her husband, son and daughter in Manitowoc. The body is now at the L. G. Seovern undertaking parlors and is to be sent east for burial. Mrs. Seidenglanz will accompany the body.

Mrs. Hajek is survived by her daughter, Mrs. Bessie Seidenglanz, and six grandchildren, Eben, Woodrow, Emmanuel, Sheldon, Vera and Robert Seidenglanz.

DRESS WARM AND KEEP FEET DRY
Tells Rheumatism Sufferers to Take Salts and Get Rid of Uric Acid

Rheumatism is no respecter of age, sex, color or rank. It is not the most dangerous of human afflictions. It is one of the most painful. Those subject to rheumatism should eat less meat, dress as warmly as possible, avoid any undue exposure and, above all, drink lots of pure water.

Rheumatism is caused by uric acid which is generated in the bowels and absorbed into the blood. It is the function of the kidneys to filter this acid from the blood and cast it out in the urine; the pores of the skin are also a means of freeing the blood of this impurity. In damp and chilly, cold weather the skin pores are closed, thus forcing the kidneys to do double work; they become weak and sluggish and fail to eliminate this uric acid which keeps accumulating through the system, eventually settling in the joints and muscles causing stiffness, soreness and pain called rheumatism.

At the first twinge of rheumatism get from any pharmacy about four ounces of Jad Salts; put a tablespoonful in a glass of water and drink before breakfast each morning for a week. This is said to eliminate uric acid by stimulating the kidneys to normal action, thus ridding the blood of these impurities.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and is used with excellent results by thousands of folks who are subject to rheumatism.—Advertisement.

A RECTIFIER TUBE WITH NO FILAMENT
A two electrode vacuum tube is often used as a rectifier for storage battery charging from an alternating current source. The filament, but rather upon gaseous conduction between two electrodes. The tube will not pass more than fifty milliamperes for any length of time without overheating, but two or more may be connected in parallel to pass the desired amount of current. The tubes will rectify alternating current ranging from 500 to 750 volts. If higher voltages are to be rectified the proper number of tubes may be connected in series. Overloading of the tubes will cause excessive heating, and the rectifying properties will be lost to a greater or lesser extent. The life of the tube has not been determined as yet, but depends upon the ability it has to stand the effects of heating and cooling. The manufacturers conservatively rate it at 3,000 hours. While these tubes may be used for storage battery charging on alternating current circuits, probably their best value is in rectifying alternating current for use with vacuum tube transmitters. It will rectify currents of any frequency.

The tube may be mounted in an ordinary Edison base socket or receptacle, such as is used for accommodating the ordinary electric lamp. It is thus very convenient to use.

RADIO EXPLAINED
By E. H. LEWIS
INSTRUCTOR NEW YORK Y.M.C.A. RADIO SCHOOL

THE CHARACTERISTIC CURVE
In previous articles it has been pointed out that the potentials applied to the grid of a three electrode vacuum tube can be made to control the electric current flowing in the plate circuit. It has also been shown that given variations of potentials have a greater effect upon the plate current when applied to the grid than when applied to the plate of the tube. Suppose that a battery were connected between the grid and the negative terminal of the filament in such a manner that a positive potential is applied to the grid. The positive battery terminal would have to be connected to the grid and the negative terminal to the grid and the negative terminal of the filament.

Thrift of Pueblos Placed on Display
"The Pueblos were thrifty!" announces a placard in the window on the southeast corner of Brand boulevard and Broadway owned by the First National Bank. Pottery, arrowheads, Navajo baskets and strings of turquoise and wampum are displayed. Some of them are from the ruins of the Pueblo Bonito, N. M., which was the metropolis of the seven cities of Pueblo and in ruins before Columbus.

As silent spokesmen for thrift these articles have been loaned by John Bender of 407 Cameron Place who is a specialist on Indian lore.

"The ancient Pueblo Indians left wonderful pottery and baskets—a sign of their thrift and industry," continues the placard. "What will you leave behind you?"

Dr. Eckles Discovers Lake of Wet Water
Bass Lake and "Doc" Eckles became quite friendly last week. No, it wasn't his annual bath. He was vacationing. "I soaked in the lake, rode over it, rowed on it, bathed in it, lay in it, and fished in it," he remarked. "In fact, I did everything that a reasonable person should."

To prove it, he has returned to his office at 125 1/2 North Brand boulevard with a fine case of tan. Mrs. J. E. Eckles and their two sons, Ralph and Gilbert of 328 North Orange street, were along to see that "the Doc" didn't get into too much mischief.

"That is the most beautiful spot I have ever seen!" exclaimed Dr. Eckles. "I am going back there again in September."

"Yes, my new seven passenger Buick was right on the job. I was more than pleased with the way it acted."

angles cross, a point may be located, which will give a graphical record of the plate current noted for each grid potential.

In the drawing it will be noted that points have been located along the two reference lines AC and AB in such a way that a vertical line from a certain point on AC will intersect a line drawn through a point on AB and parallel with line AC. The intersection on the two lines is a point. By locating a point on AC for each one volt change of positive grid potential and a point upon AB for each corresponding value of plate current and drawing the additional lines mentioned above various points will be found which are intersections of the lines. The grid battery connections may then be reversed so that negative potentials are applied to the grid. New points may be located upon AC and AB in a similar manner and will produce new points, which intersections of additional lines vertical to AC and parallel to AB. If the points are then connected by a smooth line it will be found that this line is not straight at all points, but is curved in some places and straight in others. The line or curve thus drawn is the characteristic curve of the particular tube investigated with a certain fixed plate potential and filament temperature. Any point chosen at random along the line can be referred to the base lines AB and AC and a value of grid potential (positive or negative) found which gives a certain plate current. Or, if a point is located on the line AC for a certain grid potential, tracing this point upward along a vertical line to its intersection with the characteristic curve, and then over to the line AB, along a line parallel with AC, the corresponding value of plate current will be found. The characteristic curve and its reference lines give a picture of the change of plate current with any given tube when plate potential and filament current (which controls temperature) remains the same. It is to be noted that AC and two tubes will very likely have the same characteristics under the same conditions of plate potential and filament current. Also, that if either filament current or plate potential are changed a new characteristic curve will result when one particular tube is considered. These matters will be considered later.

Thrift of Pueblos Placed on Display
"The Pueblos were thrifty!" announces a placard in the window on the southeast corner of Brand boulevard and Broadway owned by the First National Bank. Pottery, arrowheads, Navajo baskets and strings of turquoise and wampum are displayed. Some of them are from the ruins of the Pueblo Bonito, N. M., which was the metropolis of the seven cities of Pueblo and in ruins before Columbus.

As silent spokesmen for thrift these articles have been loaned by John Bender of 407 Cameron Place who is a specialist on Indian lore.

"The ancient Pueblo Indians left wonderful pottery and baskets—a sign of their thrift and industry," continues the placard. "What will you leave behind you?"

To prove it, he has returned to his office at 125 1/2 North Brand boulevard with a fine case of tan. Mrs. J. E. Eckles and their two sons, Ralph and Gilbert of 328 North Orange street, were along to see that "the Doc" didn't get into too much mischief.

"That is the most beautiful spot I have ever seen!" exclaimed Dr. Eckles. "I am going back there again in September."

"Yes, my new seven passenger Buick was right on the job. I was more than pleased with the way it acted."

GRAPPLING BOUT BEING ARRANGED

Carl Johnson, Here From New York May Meet Young Hackenschmidt

Final arrangements are nearing completion, it is rumored, for a wrestling match between Young Hackenschmidt, local wrestler, and Carl Johnson, who until recently was wrestling instructor at the New York Athletic club.

Johnson came to Glendale several weeks ago and has been long-ling for a chance to exercise. "Hack" also has been feeling the call of the wild, and soon after Johnson's arrival, tentative matches were discussed. Arrangements have gone so far that it is darkly whispered that the match will be staged on July 7 or 8, in some local hall.

Two preliminary matches will precede the main event, if plans now under consideration mature. Three local satellites and one Pasadena man will probably be matched up for these bouts, which will be of fifteen or twenty minutes' duration.

Both Hackenschmidt and Johnson are now working out, and it appears that both are confident of winning. Johnson weighs between 155 and 160 pounds, it is stated, while "Hack" is said to pack 175 to 180 pounds of beef. That doesn't scare Johnson, however, and it doesn't make "Hack" feel bad, as this is to be a light

Tagging All Bases

Eddie Rommel qualified as an iron man by pitching the Athletics to a double victory over the Red Sox, the latter moving into the cellar while the former moved out.

The Pirates got back into their stride by taking the Cubs over the jumps in a doubleheader, 6 to 1 and 7 to 6.

Neither Ehman nor the Tigers could stand prosperity. After getting away running with a four-run lead, they allowed the Sox to come from behind and win, 9 to 5.

"Dutch" Reuther made it 13 victories in sixteen starts by pitching the Dodgers to a 7 to 3 decision over the tail-end Braves.

Hargraves' homer in the ninth put the Reds one run to the good, but the Cards came back, tied it up and then won in the twelfth when Gainor's double was followed by another double and a sacrifice.

The World Over

By FRANKLIN B. MORSE
PACIFIC SPORTS SERVICE

The insistence with which Kearns, manager of Jack Dempsey, clings to a proposed match with anybody but the negro Wills, while the latter is considered by the public to be the only man to stand a chance with the champion, is arousing considerable suspicion.

To many it begins to look very much as though Kearns and his champion are unwilling to tackle anything but the "soft marks" and their sidestepping of the only man who seems capable of putting up an argument in the ring is not making a bit with the public. Just why Dempsey, who is pleased to be called a super-man, should be lagging in the matter of taking a chance in the ring is causing some discussion.

Naturally, the first thought reverts to the matter of physical condition. There is no secret about the matter that during his trip abroad, Dempsey turned night into day and trod the primrose path during his waking, and during a great part of his sleeping hours. The vineyards of France provided all the sparkling beverage necessary, and the ladies were hospitable. Aside from this, Dempsey's mode of living has been, in almost every detail, exactly in opposition of everything that is needful for the conditioning of an athlete.

The question arises, are both Kearns and Dempsey now fearful to take on anything but the men who are classed as second and third raters at the present time? Has the champion's flesh become soft and his muscles flabby through disuse and misuse? If so, it means that his wind has been affected and his powers of recuperation diminished. These are the questions that arise in the minds of the public.

There has been some disposition recently to make boys in the lighter weights fight in order to hold their titles. Why should not this apply in the case of a heavyweight champion? Through the concerted efforts of sports writers, it would be impossible for Dempsey to fight any but the man the public wanted to see in the ring. The ring followers certainly have no desire to see Willard in the ring again. Certainly they have too much regard for the gameness of Carpenter to again see him led to the slaughter. Brennan and the other men of that class are not considered. The problem, then, through the process of elimination, settles itself to Wills, and if Wills is the only logical opponent for Dempseiy, certainly the public is greater than either Kearns or Dempsey or any set of promoters. If insistence is made on Wills by the public and the sporting writers, Wills it will be. Trickery cannot prevail against public opinion. With the newspapers set against any match no promoter would be foolhardy enough to stage it, especially with the exorbitant price that Dempsey is setting on his services. If Dempsey fights any but the man the public wants, it will be because the public supinely allowed Kearns, Dempsey and the promoter to dictate to it.

POSTPONE LEAGUE MEETING

Sports Chatter

By BILL UNMACK
PACIFIC SPORTS SERVICE

Much has been said and written on the fact that the University of California track team won the I. C. A. A. track and field championships this year on the superiority of its field event men. The same has been said of practically every eastern intercollegiate meet in which California has competed, and an analysis of the scores of Californians in these meets in the last ten years shows that the Californians' strength has generally been in the field events.

California has competed six times in the last ten years and has scored a total of 136 1/2 points. Of this the track events have netted 38 points whereas the field events have netted almost three times this amount or 98 1/2 points. Only in the meets of 1920 when California placed fifth and 1921, when the team won have the track men outscored field event men, the 1920 track men netting 11 points to 7 1/2 and last year the track men netted 17 to 10 1/2 by the field men. The meet this year showed the field men the heaviest scorers and the track men only netted three points out of a total of 49 1/2 points which won the meet for California.

Stanford university on the other hand, though they have only competed four times since 1913, showed the track men doing the most scoring. In these four meets Stanford tied with California for third in 1915, placed sixth in 1920, fifth in 1921 and third this year for a total of 78 1/2 points of which 49 were scored in the track events and 29 1/2 in the field events.

The comparisons are interesting, and while the University of California has primarily won on its field with event men it does not necessarily show that the Pacific coast is weak in track men. The men who won on the track for California were stars without a question of doubt. Note for example Hendrixson, twice winner of the quarter, probably the hardest race to win in almost any big program; and these men coupled with the great work on the track of Kirksey, Sutcliff, Murray, Wells, Norton—all of Stanford—shows that the Pacific coast in general does produce good track men. To date the weakest spots in Pacific coast track work has been the mile, two mile and half mile. In all other track events and hurdles the coast has produced and shown genuine stars at different times. Never since the days of Slim Wilson and Bonnett, both Stanford men, the former a miler and the latter a half-miler, the greatest men in their events ever produced on the coast, have men been found to equal their performances.

The points scored in the various years' competitions by both California and Stanford show the strength in the two departments as follows:

Year	Total	Placed	Track	Field
1913	10	7	10	10
1914	18	6	4	14
1916	22	3	3	19
1920	18 1/2	5	11	19
1921	7 1/2	won	17	10
1922	49 1/2	won	3	37 1/2

Year	Total	Placed	Track	Field
1916	22	3	17	5
1920	15	6	8	7
1921	15	5	14	1
1922	26 1/2	3	10	16 1/2

Placed shows position in team scores. California and Stanford tied for third place in 1916.

NEW YORK, June 28.—Miller Huggins left here today to rejoin his Yanks in Washington with definite instructions from the owners of the team to say it with black-backs if his ballplayers do not behave themselves in the future. This fact disposes for the time being of the rumor that Huggins was to be beheaded in favor of Edward G. Barrow, business manager of the club.

The rumor was denied by all parties concerned, particularly by Barrow, who intimated that neither riches nor blandishments could tempt him.

"We wish to deny emphatically that we are considering a successor to Huggins," Colonel Jacob Ruppert, president of the club, declared. He is not to blame for the slump of the team. The players themselves are, in the main, responsible for the losing streak. Supreme indifference as to what transpired on the ball field and absorbed interest in affairs extraneous to baseball, if not actually inimical to it, are said to have influenced the slump.

Indeed, correspondents with the team have sent back tales purporting to prove that the conduct of the Yanks during the western trip just closed was the scandal of the league. It is, moreover, significant that when Judge Landis started out to read the riot act to the various clubs throughout both circuits, he opened the tour with a talk to the Yanks. The Red Sox, perforce, were also present but that seemed to be an incident. He is supposed to have directed most of his remarks to the champions.

Girl Scout Troop to Give Fairy Play

"The Forest Ring," a three-act play by Cecil DeMille, that is to be presented at the Broadway school Thursday night, June 29, by the Girl Scouts of America, Glendale Troop No. 1, is a fairy play that will delight the young and the old. Evelyn Hunt has mastered the difficult role of fairy queen. Beryl Goodale plays the part of the fairy princess, the little girl who still believes in fairies is Katherine Bender. Character parts, adding the touch of comedy, are taken by Margaret Longley and Frederica Browne. Twenty girls of Troop No. 1 are included in the cast. The elaborate stage setting has been built by the girl scouts and many beautiful costumes have been designed especially for the parts.

GLENDALE ALUMNI TO GIVE DANCE FRIDAY NIGHT

School Association Social Session to Take Place in C. of C. Hall

The Glendale Union High School Alumni association will hold its annual June dance on Friday night of this week at the Chamber of Commerce auditorium. All the members of the alumni and their friends are urged to attend the dance.

Don Packer, '14, president of the alumni, has extended a special invitation to the members of the graduating class of 1922 to attend the dance as the affair is given in its honor to welcome it into the ranks of the Alumni association. For the other members of the association it will be a reunion affair as graduates of G. U. H. S. for a decade or more will be there. Every class from 1910 to 1922 will probably be represented.

The Alumni association has for the past few years always given a June dance to welcome the new graduates into their organization. This year, it was impossible to give the dance during the last two weeks of the school semester owing to the crowded program of the seniors.

Officers of Alumni
The officers of the alumni for the past year have been: Donald Packer, '14, president; Russell Tummel, '19, vice-president; Ernestine Lyon, '17, secretary, and Frank Balthis, '19, treasurer.

The committee for the June dance is composed of the following: Frank Balthis, chairman; David Folz, James McCluskey, Guy Bennett, Jane Snyder, and Lucy Strother.

The music for the occasion will be furnished by Sid Gorman's orchestra. I. S. Brown, '16, will play the trombone.

Call to Planets; Police Capture It; Cheston Pot Pie

PARIS, June 28.—The French academy of science today offered a prize of 100,000 francs for the first communication with any planet except Mars. "Mars is too easy," explains the announcement.

COLUMBIA, Mo., June 28.—A careless motorist smacked into a lamp post on Broadway today and broke it off. A quart of Old Crow, hidden in the base of the post, rolled to the pavement intact. But, tough luck, the police have it now.

SAN ANGELO, Tex., June 28.—How about a cheston pot pie? Or would you prefer roast chicken?

"Cheston" is the name adopted today from a list of 2500 suggestions for "goat" meat at the annual convention of the National Sheep and Goat Raisers' association here.

Official recognition of the name will be sought of the United States department of agriculture.

'FAIR LADY' FINE FILM ATT. D. L.

Rex Beach Story Better In Picture, Released by United Artists

Here is romance for the romantic, love themes for lovers, heart interest for the sympathetic, intrigue and mystery for the dreamers, action for the adventurous, problems for the thoughtful, and a wealth of beauty for the artistic. What more could be asked of the modern motion picture?

"Fair Lady," a United Artists release, is a romance adapted from Rex Beach's "The Net," and Whitman Bennett, the producer, has set the story in a background of exquisite beauty and visualized it through a remarkably forceful cast in shades of subtle motion and decisive action.

The production has all the elements of mystery, love, adventure, jealousy, hate and ambition, with tones of tragedy and humor nicely blended and timed to relieve each changing emotion.

Rock Island Flyer Ditched; One Dead

LINCOLN, Neb., June 28.—The engineer and fireman were fatally injured and a score of passengers were hurt when the Rock Island Flyer, west-bound, went into a ditch near Prairie home today. Spreading rails are believed to have been the cause of the accident. The passenger cars followed the locomotive in toppling down the embankment, all turning completely over. Physicians and nurses were rushed to the wreck from Lincoln. Several of the injured are said to be Chicago passengers.

Engineer W. N. McLennan of Fairbury, Neb., died soon after being taken from the wreck. Fireman Henry Hart of Lincoln is dying. Roy Omer, mail clerk of Mankato, Kan., is seriously injured. None of the passengers is fatally hurt. Five hundred feet of track was torn up before the locomotive lurched on its side in the ditch.

The Pecks took with them little Mary Pauline Craig of Exeter who is visiting her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Codd of North Maryland avenue.

MISS JUETT WEDS F. L. LENNEY AT EAGLE ROCK

Palms and Ferns Provide Pretty Setting for Home Wedding Monday

The home of Mr. and Mrs. George C. Juett at 254 East Ridgeway avenue, Eagle Rock, was the scene of a beautiful wedding Monday evening, June 26, 1922, at 8:30 o'clock, when Fred L. Lenney claimed Miss Virginia Juett as his bride.

The house was decorated with palms and ferns and the color scheme was yellow and white. Red gladioli and hydrangeas were the only exception and these were confined to tall baskets.

A canopy of ferns, strung with small electric lights, formed the bridal bower where the troth was pledged. The porch, also, was decorated with hydrangeas and ferns and lights.

Mrs. George Ripper Sings
Miss Margaret Lenney of Long Beach, a cousin of the bridegroom, played the wedding march from Lohengrin while Mrs. George Ripper of Los Angeles sang, "I Love You," accompanied by Mrs. Page Noll, a recent newcomer to Eagle Rock.

Miss Margaret White of Atlanta, Ga., was maid of honor. She wore a pink georgette dress and carried a bouquet of lavender sweet peas, tied with lavender tulle. Miss May Juett, a sister of the bride, was the bridesmaid and her dress was of yellow organza. She also carried lavender sweet peas.

Bride Wears Orange Wreath
The bride was dressed in white tulle and wore a wreath of orange blossoms. The bouquet was of Cecil Brunner roses, showered with lilies of the valley. The Rev. Mr. Dillon of Eagle Rock performed the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Lenney left for their honeymoon trip amid a shower of confetti and rice. They will enjoy a week at San Diego and upon their return will make their home in Eagle Rock.

Following the departure of the couple, dancing and refreshments were enjoyed by the 50 invited guests.

Return from Motor Trip

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Marto and son of Eagle Rock have returned from an enjoyable vacation trip. They drove north on the coast route to San Jose where they visited friends and took side trips to Santa Cruz and the Big Basin. They returned home by the way of the San Joaquin valley and made a stop at Merced where Mrs. Marto's parents reside. From there they went into Yosemite and glimpsed the falls which are at their best now, due to the late heavy snows just melting. Watson Road and the Ridge Route furnished more scenery. More than 1300 miles was covered without a bit of tire trouble, Mr. Marto reports.

Fines Montrose Man $100 Result of Fire

Starting an open fire without a permit is often an expensive process as T. H. Wells of Montrose discovered yesterday. He was fined $100 by Justice of the Peace Owen C. Emery when he pleaded guilty to starting a rubbish fire June 20 which spread until it burned off an entire hillside.

Mary Sullivan, an employee of Mr. Wells, was the one who actually started the fire, it is understood. She was fined $100 also, but the sentence was suspended because she had carried out the orders of her employer, it was claimed.

On June 20 she started to burn a pile of rubbish which was near some bushes, it is stated. The fire spread rapidly and covered the entire side of a hill, burning off the vegetation and destroying several ornamental and fruit trees. It was extinguished by fire wardens. It is a violation of a state law and a county ordinance, says Justice of the Peace Emery, to build a fire any place in the county between the months of May and October without a permit from the fire warden.

Mrs. Pearl Curran Hostess at Reunion

Mrs. Pearl Curran of 560 Riverside Drive was dinner hostess last night at a very happy family reunion of relatives, many of whom are having a visit together for the first time in many years. A color scheme of pink and white was carried out prettily in floral decorations of pink carnations and African daisies, and also in the table appointments.

Covers were laid for Miss Goldie Mortland of Miami, Fla.; Mrs. Sadie Adams and daughter, Manita, of St. Louis; Mrs. Capitola Goff, of Galveston; Mrs. Beatrice Koppen, of San Francisco; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bowen and nephew Lloyd Bowen, of Los Angeles; Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Linkogel, Mr. and Mrs. George Finnucane, Mrs. Priscilla Linkogel, Miss Hazel Linkogel, Mrs. Curran and little daughter, Gloria.

Mrs. Goff and Mrs. Koppen are sisters of Mrs. Curran and Mrs. Adams and Miss Mortland are their cousins, and all are her house guests at present.

COMMENT THAT'S ALL

Times Good, Getting Better Decent, Healthy and Happy California Youth Envied Federal Jobs Go Begging

By Gil A. Cowan
SURELY it was encouraging yesterday evening to read the report of the federal reserve bank agent at San Francisco, telling how prosperity has hit this section of the country squarely in the middle of the supposedly dull season.

Trust to the Pacific coast to take care of itself during economic stress—and, after weathering the blow which swept the east nearly off its feet, conditions are such that "times are good and getting better."

Right now is the appointed hour for those who benefit the most to take advantage of upturn of confidence and buy, build and improve. Four years of prosperity and maybe more are in sight, so in the words of a rustic, "make hay while the sun shines."

Optimism should prevail in other than financial circles. Somebody calls attention to a resume of opinion on the morals of today, appearing in the current issue of the Literary Digest. According to some of the morbid minds the whole world is going to the bow wows. One writer says "devil-ution" is taking place. All of which might make a weak-minded person believe it true, if facts did not show otherwise. A visit to any bathing beach, a visit to any college or a visit to any city and the most skeptical will be convinced that this part of the world not only is enlightened, but far more decent, healthy and happier than ever before.

A great howl is made about girls smoking! Why there are a few grandmothers who chew and smoke! There are many who are shocked by bobbed hair, there are others who object to the one-piece bathing suit, others who would deprive the youth of motor cars and many who cannot conceive of so called "petting parties."

Right here let me ask the married folks how many would be hitched today if there hadn't been a little loving prior to the minister tying the knot? And it all wasn't done at a Sunday school picnic, either.

No one will defend the abuse of property. At the same time no one should set himself up as a censor of the present generation.

Common sense wins out in the long run and a large per cent of the reformers haven't common sense or they would get a better reputation and mind their own business.

California young men and women are about as bright, healthy, clean and happy 'till as you can find on earth.

Out here in the west children find little or no restraint. Expression of life reaches its greatest development.

You can find more young men, more self-respecting young women in a square block in Glendale than in more densely populated New York or Chicago.

So right there is one big answer to the moral issue soaked, washed, rinsed and hung-on-the-line-to-dry by the Literary Digest. Freedom—freedom of thought, freedom in action—found here, is cause for the world's envy. That is why thousands of parents with children are coming to the sunny southland where nature smiles.

In recent civil service examinations, not enough applicants were secured for many of the jobs which are now open.

Can you believe it? A shortage in the ranks of the government workers.

Technical and scientific positions go begging and if you have ability along these lines and would like to work for Uncle Sam, call at the postoffice where detailed information is obtainable.

'FOUR HORSEMEN' NOW AT GLENDALE

Great Film Directed by Rex Ingram With Randolph Valentino As Star

Again "The Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse" comes to Glendale in its successful picture-making by Metro. Those who have seen it will see it once more at the Glendale theatre today, Thursday or Friday. And others will avail themselves of this great opportunity now.

"The Four Horsemen" is the supreme expression of the great war. Certainly no novel has stirred the universal appeal created by the Ibanex masterpiece. The book, now in its one hundred and sixty-sixth edition, has been read throughout the world. The monumental task of transferring it to the screen was accomplished by June Mathis, who made a scenario that from all accounts has preserved the force of the original and in many incidents heightened it. But it is the director, Rex Ingram, who has apparently achieved the most sensational success. He is reported to have set a new mark in artistry of picture-making, and Rodolph Valentino built a reputation as the "great lover."

A special musical setting has been prepared by Paul Carson, organist, and Hazel Ray, dramatic soprano.

CITY AND COUNTY TOPICS RECEIVE CONSIDERATION

Dinner, Mass Meeting at Pacific Avenue Church Bring Out Views

Mayor stated that although he had considered running for county supervisor, he had refused to try for the office if Supervisor Wright is to try for re-election. "Mr. Wright," said the mayor, "is a square fellow and a straight-shooter, and I'm going to work for him."

Toastmaster Preston then proposed a little music, and led by Mayor Robinson with a piano accompaniment by Mrs. Robinson, the guests sang "Mother Machree."

Councilman Lapham was the next speaker. He told of the present management of the police department, and the system of patrolling at night, leaving a desk man and a motorcycle policeman on duty at the station to answer calls and would be taxed this year for the establishment of a "real" park system. The swimming pool in the one city park is finished, he stated, and the bath house will be completed in about two weeks.

Fire Chief Lankford told of the fire situation. Twenty-seven calls have been answered this month, he said, or an average of one a day. These were mostly grass fires started by burning rubbish, and the chief advised the clearing of vacant lots to minimize danger. Only the very dangerous vacant lots are cleared by the city, he stated.

Plans Yearly Budget
F. E. Dickson, the new purchasing agent, told of the difficulties he encounters in his duties. He is planning to get a yearly budget so that the city materials may be purchased in quantity and thus the expenses made less.

President Hollister of the Chamber of Commerce spoke of the good being done by many organizations here, and advised them to work together in every way possible.

Dr. Harrower spoke of many of the projects now under consideration for Glendale.

"We'll have the new street car connection in 1922," he declared, "and the new depot in 1923."

The new hotel, for which, he said, $80,000 has been subscribed, and the proposed park system were included in his talk. He asked the co-operation of Supervisor Wright in getting a bridge across from Glendale to Griffith park, and dwell on the necessity for the bridge itself rather than the selecting of some certain street for it to connect with.

E. F. Kittorman discussed the park situation, and Justice Emery told the advantages of organization and co-operation.

E. F. Sanders spoke of the principles involved in the meeting, and complimented the city officials on the way they were handling their work.

Constructive Criticism
The guests then adjourned to the auditorium of the church, and were joined there by others who had come to attend the mass meeting. Miss Hazel Linkogel, a finished violinist, accompanied by Mrs. Curran, gave Drdla's "Souvenir," and responded to the enthusiastic applause with an encore.

Col. J. W. Everington spoke of the advantages of constructive criticism in building up a good, non-partisan city government.

Charles B. Guthrie, chairman of the executive committee of the American Legion, spoke of the community spirit of Rev. Preston and his church, and of the proposed Legion building and the park system.

Earl Goodspeed of May & Hellman company made a short talk on the veterans' bonus bill, and circulated a petition for its passage. G. U. Moyses spoke of the increasing needs of the school system, with the number of school children in Glendale increasing forty per cent a year.

Ole Anderson of the Newton Electric company, accompanied by Mrs. Spencer Robinson, sang "Old Fashioned Town," and responded to the appreciative applause with "My Rosemary."

A. T. Cowan told of three pressing needs of the city—a system of registration whereby one can always find the registrar, a definite decision to go ahead with the park system, and a concerted effort to get the bridge put through to Griffith park.

C. D. Lusby complimented the city, and spoke of Glendale as the best of the best.

E. H. Scott of the Erie railroad, and a number of others present were called on.

Rev. Harley Preston then called upon the entire assembly to sing "America," in which they were led by Mayor Robinson.

City Manager Reeves made a short address in which he spoke of various questions confronting the city officials.

Makes Bridge Pledge
Rev. Preston then called on Supervisor Wright, the speaker of the evening, who spoke on "Co-operation between city and county government."

"I evidently made one mistake when I came to California," he said, "in that I didn't move to Glendale, but I may rectify even that in time."

The supervisor then launched into a terse and interesting discussion of the ways in which the city and county governments might work together to their best interests. He spoke of the flood control work done in the interests of Glendale by the county last January. He told of the $7,500 spent by the county within the city limits of Burbank for the improvement of Magnolia avenue so that traffic from the upper part of the valley might find its way into Burbank and Glendale.

Mr. Wright pledged the support of the board of supervisors in obtaining a bridge and outlet to Griffith park. He told of the work being done by the county at the county hospital, county farm, El Retiro, Olive View and of the conditions at the county jail.

"Of the thirty-three millions of dollars raised for county expenditures during last year, more than half was spent on the school system," stated the supervisor. "The county, like the city, has its school and its park problems."

He told of the measures being taken by the county to solve the park problem, and ended with his pledge of support to the people of Glendale.

Rev. Preston before calling for more music urged the community support of the Wright law, backing up the national Volstead act. The program was ended with the singing of "Auld Lang Syne."

How did your neighbor's last bargain tire turn out

PROBABLY you know at least one car-owner who is always on the look-out for the cheapest tires he can find. He likes to get them by mail or at a sale or at some place where they have big red bargain signs over the door.

It would be fine if he could get "the edge" in every tire trade.

But the dealer can't afford to let him have it.

Even if a man saw any slight percentage in tire shopping at all—it disappeared when the "Usco" brought the price down.

A standard product—and the dealer sells it with pride.
A good tire. The dealer has no desire to trade you into a larger profit for himself.
